

T. K. Curry of Boyesen township is giving a helping hand in the Register's mechanical department during the absence of the Mills.' Mr. Curry was formerly in the newspaper business for himself at Binford, N. D., and a few years spent as a honyock has by no means deprived him of his knowledge of the 'art preservative'—Scranton Register.