

Mrs. Torvald Dahl reached home Monday after spending the past few months visiting in Norway. She enjoyed trips to many points of interest in the motherland, and renewed acquaintances with the old friends and neighbors of her younger days. Mrs. Dahl enjoyed her trip abroad very much, but was glad to return to "good old North Dakota" again.