

The auction sale of Andrew Dablin was held last Saturday, and the entire list of articles advertised, were disposed of except the automobile. The bidding was spirited and a great many of the articles brought a good price. F. G. Lewis was the auctioneer.