

Cooperstown by Sheriff Knapp, who arrested him, and yesterday morning he was arraigned, but waived examination and was bound over to the district court, bail being fixed in the sum of five hundred dollars.

Andrew Dahlin, Fred Widlund and Wm. Phelps returned Monday from Canada, where they had gone to look over the country. Mr. Dahlin is the local agent for C. P. R. lands up there. They were taken up with the country and expect to go up next spring.

Jack Ryan is sure an unlucky mortal. During the past summer he met with mishap after mishap. About the time he was over one injury he would meet with another. A few days ago he injured his hand, then blood poison set in, and to top all that off, his horse died. While none of his injuries are considered very serious, he is laid up from work most of the time.

Fred Widlund was lamenting the loss of his pocket book which contained $40. last Monday, on
