

Several of the members of the West Prairie church congregation surprised Mrs. Eliason, the pastor's wife, last Sunday. They presented her with a purse of about $50. She expects to leave the last of this month for Northfield, Minnesota, where the two oldest children are attending St. Olaf college.