

Aug. Evers returned last Saturday from Fargo where he had gone to bring his father back from the hospital as far as Cooperstown where he will stay with his daughter, Mrs. Cook. The old gentleman is suffering from a bad eye caused from being hit by a chip while splitting wood.