

Attorney J. F. Faytle received his appointment as postmaster at McHenry last Friday, to succeed G. B. Mansfield, resigned, since which time he has been rounding things in shape at his new headquarters. John is taking hold of his new duties in earnest and assures the general public right-up-to-the-minute service as long as he remains postmaster. Miss Gladys Lowden will continue in the capacity of assistant.—McHenry Tribune.