

suit.

Sentinel—Fred W. Graff left on Tuesday for Brooten, Minn., where he will have charge of the schools the coming year. After a couple days there he will go on to Minneapolis to visit relatives until the opening of school. Fred's many Cooperstown friends wish him success in his chosen vocation.