

Theo Kittelson returned last Saturday, from Fargo, where he had gone with Morris Greenland, who was operated on for appendicitis. Before returning to Binford, Mr. Kittelson visited a short time at his old home in Gary, Minnesota.

Morris Greenland, who went to Fargo last Thursday, to be operated on for appendicitis, is getting along very well under the conditions. He withstood the effects of the operation splendidly, but his feet have been bothering him some, so it will probably be a couple of weeks before he returns.

The annual meeting of the
