

Oscar Greenland left Monday for Bismarck to attend the state firemen's tournament held there this week. Mr. Greenland has attended these conventions for three consecutive years as chief of the local team, which entitles him to a life membership in the North Dakota Firemen's association.

H. M. Jackson and family depart