

next summer.

Mrs Louis Guesinger and Mrs. Hermon Thrift had an experience with a runaway team on Tuesday, that they don't care to have repeated again very soon. They were on their way to the home of Frank Kingsley to spend the day and when nearing that place the horses became frightened so the ladies couldn't control them. In jumping from the buggy they were badly shaking up and received several minor bruises. The horses ran into a telephone post, breaking it in two.
