

Stock.

O. S. Gunderson and son, Ejnar, departed Saturday for their new home at Reynolds. Mrs. Gunderson left with the other children on Monday. By their removal Binford loses one of its most respected families. They had an enviable standing in social circles here, and their departure is a cause for much regret. The Times wishes them all good luck and that their surroundings at Reynolds will be of the most pleasant.

(Caution: The editor has been