

W.

O S. Gunderson, formerly of this place, has removed from Reynolds, where he was interested in a co-operative store, to Nome, in Barnes county, to enter the mercantile business. We understand that Mr. Gunderson will not move his household goods to Nome until about the first of June or thereabouts. Mr. Gunderson is an excellent business man. He learns the needs of the community and then keeps a stock of goods that will meet the demands of the buying public. He is up-to-date in his ideas, and with his get-up-and-git, he will prove a valuable man to the business circles of Nome.
