

of it.

The Hagberg auction sale was held Tuesday, and the sale as a whole exceeded the expectation of Mr. Hagberg. The horses brought a good price, which is more evidence of F. G. Lewis' ability as an auctioneer. Fred is earning a reputation of being as good an auctioneer as any in the country, and you will make no mistake if you engage him.

Mr. Hagberg will tell you that. Mr. Hagberg will move to town as soon as the house he purchased is vacated.

C. W. Almsley wishes to express