

would have had.

Pekin Herald:--Nels Hagen has purchased a full blood Percheron mare for breeding purposes. She is the finest looking piece of horse flesh ever seen in these parts, and is a valuable addition to his stable. Touching the scales at over 1700, of a rich deep black color; the mare presents a handsome appearance. She is pedigreed and registered, and newly arrived from France.