

Oscar F. Hoff was up from Cooperstown Tuesday evening, looking over the political situation and meeting old friends. Oscar is a candidate for county treasurer on the Republican ticket, and is in the race to win. For a number of years he has been assistant postmaster at Cooperstown. He is perfectly competent to fill the office of county treasurer and The Times hopes to see him get a good vote in this end of the county.

The truest, best and sweetest time