

At a meeting of the congregation of the German Lutheran church, south of town, last Sunday, Rev. Horstmann tendered his resignation. It was with a great deal of reluctance that the members of the church accepted the resignation, but they did not feel that they could hardly stand in the way of his advancement to a larger and better field, as much as they disliked to see him leave. Mr. Horstmann has accepted the call from Springfield, Missouri. He has not definitely decided what time he will depart, but it will be very soon.
