

As a result of a little fun Mox Wild is the worse off by a broken leg. The accident happened at Jessie last night at about 10 o'clock. As N. O. Hougen was driving his auto thru the street, Mr. Wild stepped out in the street and signalled him to stop, and in turning to get out of the way he turned the same way as Mr. Hougen, who was also trying to avoid him. Seeing that they both turned the same way, they both turned in the opposite direction and it was then that the accident happened. The bone was fractured above the ankle.
