

died.

Matt Hovel is as proud as peacock these days. Matt was here last Saturday with his new automobile and the way he swelled up when his friends gawked at him as he went thru the streets was awful to behold. He has a 40-horse Interstate and it sure is a "beaut." He says he won't eat the dust from any of 'em and we believe he's right.

As a result of a little fun Mox