

Valley City Courier: E. M. Jackson was at Cooperstown last Wednesday, and while in that city attended the Masonic lodge session and met with a great surprise. Mr. Jackson was formerly worshipful master of the Cooperstown lodge. Under the good of the order, Mr. Jackson was called to the "carpet" by the present worshipful master, who, in a neat and well appointed little presentation speech, handed to Mr. Jackson a beautiful past worshipful master's apron, which is indeed a work of art and a gift from the lodge which is greatly appreciated and prized by the recipient. Mr. Jackson has been one of the
