

E. M. Jackson was here Tuesday on his regular trip. That Jack will remain with the new company is a source of great pleasure to his many friends here. Naturally, Binford people would like to have the Jacksons make their home here, but when that is impossible, we must be satisfied with an occasional visit. Since the new company took over the yards of the Trimble-Winton company, Mr. Jackson has several towns further south that is included in his district.