

same as here.

Pete Jacobson is confined to his home at Willow lake with an attack of typhoid fever. He felt sick last week but by Monday was feeling better so came to town but began to get worse then so was taken home.

L. P. Larsen and wife returned