

J. E. Jansen, who has been the agent for the L. R. Welles Lumber company for the past three months left Monday for Eckelson, to run the company's yard there. Ed made a lot of friends during his short stay here, and all will regret his departure.