

lar pastor's removal from the field but wished for him success and happiness in his new field of labor. Mr. Jenson feelingly responded in which he mentioned the pleasant relations that has existed between pastor and people for the past five years and expressed his hearty appreciation of the kindnesses extended by the people of the charges he has been ministering unto during his pastorate. After this little surprise was over the ladies, who had brought well filled lunch baskets along, invited everybody into the church basement where a fine dinner was enjoyed. There was a large congregation present, the church being filled to overflowing.
