

Jessie News Items.

S. A. Pritz was a visitor at the county seat on Wednesday.

O. L. Anderson went down to Fargo last week, returning Saturday.

The Misses Ella Thorn, Nora and Bessie Jenson were Cooperstown visitors last week.

Mrs. O. E. Mellum, Mrs. Jenson and daughter, Grace, all went up to Binford for a short stay.

C. P. Martin of the Cash Store at Cooperstown, was a caller here between trains on Friday last.

Miss Edna Wilkinson has resigned as telephone operator, Miss Kastad of Cooperstown relieving her.

J. D. Erickson will now be able to travel some, having purchased a four cylinder Henderson motor cycle.

O. K. Krogfoss and D. Jenson came down from Binford Saturday, the latter remaining over Sunday with his family.

Edward Enerson departed last week for Hatton, N. D., where he will visit for some time, later going into western South Dakota.

Mrs. Chas. Taylor came down Friday to attend the dance, and also to get some more household goods as they have started housekeeping up there.

Rev. Kleiden of Sanborn conducted services at the St. Lawrence Catholic church here on Sunday. The day being spring like, there was a large number present.

Mrs. Arthur Schniss of Osseo, Minnesota, has been spending a few days visiting at the Schniss home. She is the wife of Mr. Schniss' son, who is agent at the above place.

A. J. Borsheim departed for his home at Barnesville, Minnesota, on the 10th. His many friends here regret to see him leave but nevertheless wish him success in whatever he undertakes.

A seven and a half pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry St John at the home of J. C. Hazard at Cooperstown, mother and child doing nicely. Harry now wears the smile that won't come off in a hurry.

The dance held here the other evening was a decided success, there being a splendid crowd present. A light luncheon was served at the hotel. A number of compliments were received by the Jessie Orchestra for their efforts.