

Jessie News Items.

N. O. Haugen and Harry St. John are spending a couple of days at McHenry on business.

Chas. Minor was taken to Fargo, where he will be treated at one of the hospitals, as of late he has been affected with severe headaches and also being unconscious at times. We hope that he may have a speedy recovery.

S. A. Pritz and Max Wild and families autoed to Binford Sunday, where they enjoyed a visit with friends and relatives.

J. W. Ressler returned from Fargo and is daily growing stronger, but nevertheless he has lost considerable weight during his illness.

J. D. Erickson has resigned as agent for the Great Western Grain Co. here and will go back on the farm. He's another fellow that knows there's no place like home.

A large number of the Jessie citizens journeyed to Cooperstown on Old Settlers' day, where they were treated to a ball game of a one sided description, resulting in a victory for Binford by a score of--nuf sed. The home talent shows were excellent and caused much favorable comment.

Next Sunday is the big day in Jessie, when the local base ball team cross bats with the fast Glenfield aggregation. A close and exciting game is expected on the new grounds northeast of town. Be there at three or you'll miss it.

Three auto loads of local fishermen went up to the Jim river on Saturday evening, returning the following day with a splendid catch of pickerel and perch. Here's hoping that they go again 'cause those fish sure tasted delicious.

For excitement Sunday afternoon, the base ball fans autoed to Binford where a close and interesting game was played between Kensal and Binford, resulting in a victory for the latter by a score of 3-2.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Detwiller visited at the St. John home on Sunday.

Arthur Haugen spent the past week at McHenry, returning Saturday.

L. P. Larson, Emil Ringlee and others were down from Binford in a six cylinder Mitchell on Monday.

A number of the young people of this community attended the dance at Binford last week, where they report a pleasant time.