

Jessie News Items.

Oscar Rogney and Max Wild made a flying trip to Cooperstown Thursday of last week.

J. W. Ressler and sister, Mrs. Modutz, autoed to Binford on Thursday to visit with friends.

I. D. Allen and Ben Killeran were up from Cooperstown on Thursday, riding in Allen's Chalmers-Detroit touring car.

On Monday, Miss Bessie Jenson left for Binford, where she has accepted a position as clerk in the Peoples Store.

Sidney Smith of Cooperstown was up last week with his new Ford. Sid says there's nothing like it for covering the ground.

Mrs. St. John and son returned home last Sunday after spending several weeks at the home of J. C. Hazard at Cooperstown.

Louis J. Lehner has purchased O. E. Mellum's interest in the hotel here, taking possession the 10th. Mr. Mellum will remain in the dray business.

Dick Jenson returned Saturday from Minnnsota, where he has been attending to some business matters. He also visited with his son, Arthur, at Barnesville.

Walter H. Long was called to Pingree on Friday to attend to business matters. He has sold out his interest in the hardware store there and will be engaged elsewhere.

Chas. Taylor was here a while on Monday after returning from a short bueiness trip. Charley has sold his interest in the Jessie Hardware Co. to Rogney and Jenson and will move from here before next month.

A number from here attended the exercises given by the C. H. S. at Cooperstown Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Every number was a cracker jack and much credit is due the pupils and faculty for their efforts.