

Woodworth Rustler: A deal was closed last Friday whereby Ole Johnson sold his restaurant in this city to A. S. Johnson. Mr. Johnson took possession Saturday morning and the many patrons of this popular place will receive the same fair and square treatment as before. Mr. Johnson has changed the name of the restaurant to The Hub. Ole will now devote all his time to his pool hall. We are glad to note that Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will remain in the Cream City and wish the new firm all kinds of success in their new undertaking.
