

Minnesota.

Harry Johnston, who has been employed as second man at the Farmers elevator, during the fall rush, was laid off last Friday, and departed for his home at St. Paul yesterday.