

here, only a little more advanced.

The Times scribe is in receipt of a letter from Harry Johnston, in which he states that he has accepted a position with the Acme Grain Co. at Villard, Minn. Harry has had some excellent training in the grain business while employed in the Farmers elevator at this point, and his many friends will be glad to hear of him succeeding.

Young Carl Norenstrom broke one