A LARGE CLASS WAS CONFIRME

Ten Young People Were Confirm ed at the Lutheran Church

Last Sunday confirmation services were conducted in the Lutheran church by Rev. J. M. Jenson. A class of ten renewed their baptismal yow and were received at Communion in the afternoon. Both languages were ternoon. Both languages were used, five of the class having received their instruction in Nor-wegian and five in English. The service began promptly at 10:30, and by that time the church was filled to its capacity, friends and acquaintainces from neighboring churches swelling the number. Eight of the class reside in and in the vicinity of Binford. Two of the class belong to the Luth-eran courch at Cooperstown. Christian knowledge, faith and Christian knowledge, faith and living are the essentials that make for God-pleasing men and women. These are the essentials that give hope for their life. They will give support and strength in death and assurance of a happy and blissful hereafter. We need not say that the Christian men and women form the moral backbone of a community, same and dation. This is self evident. The moral tone of a community can easily be measurcommunity can easily be measured by its fear of God, and obedience to be precepts. The Christian men and women are the ones ingly. It is to be hoped that the young men and women, who have re-ceived sufficient knowledge of right and wrong, will apply it and become a "light in the world," and the "salt of the earth." May the parents and other members of the church of riper experience encourage them in this.

who will respect and uphold law and order, civil and religion; they will not make an attempt to see how far and how much law and order can be broken, without getting caught in the meshes of law. They know that the power that one God has given, and they lives accord-

will conform their

The names of the class are as follows: Thomas Amli , Christian Vangen. Francis Ringlee, Albert Kebsguard, Jean Hougen, Elmer Hogie, Ruth Alfson, Josie Thingelstad, Agnes Kaapp and Marie Haugen.