

Frank and Wylie Keiffer returned home Monday from Canada, where they went about two weeks ago in search of land. They were unable to find anything that suited them, and are now, more than ever, convinced that North Dakota is the only best bet. Conditions in Canada, according to the Keiffers, are not half so rosy as they appear from this distance.

Wednesday, Dec. 11, 1902