

ed.

Sentinel-Courier: Frank Rice and Fred King have purchased the Clint Wilson dray line at Binford and took charge April 1. Frank and Fred are both good, sober and industrious workers and they will hustle for the business and attend promptly to everything that comes their way. They are experienced dray men, having worked on the different dray lines of this city for many years, and know the business thoroughly. We wish them unbounded success.