

Theo Jorgenson, a brother-in-law of Frank Kingsley and Anton A. Falla, left Monday for his farm near McCluskey, in Sheridan county. Mr. Jorgenson had been here for two weeks hauling seed grain from the Kingsley farm to be shipped out to his home. The crops around McCluskey were a total failure last year. The county has been bonded for a large sum of money for seed grain, but the per capita share was not large enough for Mr. Jorgenson, so he was compelled to get the balance elsewhere.
