

S. R. Klein left yesterday for St. Paul and will return in a few days with some full blood Short-horn cattle. Mr. Klein believes in diversifying, and sooner or later, this and other countries will adopt this method of farming. With the advent of stock raising and dairying this country will take a new era of prosperity.