

John Knapp is having a cement walk laid around his residence property. He has also planted a number of trees and made other notable improvements. Mr. Knapp takes a lot of pride in improving his property and should be commended for his efforts in beautifying the city.