

Olaf Knapp received his new piccolo this week and as soon as he becomes proficient enough will join the band. He, with the clarinet men; will give the band a good reed section, something which has been lacking before.