

Otto Knapp and wife came down from Peking last Sunday and remained here a few days packing up their furniture to be moved to Peking. They have engaged rooms in the old hotel building there for the present, until more suitable quarters can be secured.