

Otto Knapp has stored his furniture in the opera house annex for the time being until he can get a house at Peking. His house here will be occupied by Albert Ringlee.

We are clearing out our line of