

Jack Krohn, who has been employed as second man at the Farmers' elevator, left Tuesday for Minneapolis where he expects to remain for a couple of months before returning.