H. S. Rearick has sold an interest in the Sentinel to W. G. Schannach and O. A. Lee, in order that he may devote his time to the work in the auditor's office. Mr. Lee has been connected with the Sentinel off and on for the past six years. Mr. Schannach has been employed on the Courier at Cooperstown. "Bill" is one of the best fellows on earth, and there is no better printer in the country. His ads and jobs show an originality that is pleasing, and every one is a gem by itself. Mr. Rearick is fortunate in having so capable a young man associated with him and we look for the Sentinel to get better and better. Congratulations.
