

Mrs. John Leininger is settling up her affairs here, and will move to St. Paul next week to make her future home. Her son, Albert, will remain here until November, when he expects to go on his claim in Montana.