

several times.

F. G. Lewis returned Tuesday from Manning where he disposed of some horses for the Hammer-Thingelstad firm. Stopping at Sanborn on his way home he purchased a shetland pony and entire outfit, consisting of buggy and harness, and riding bridle and saddle, and brought it home