

presented to them.

Mrs. F. G. Lewis was the hostess at a Leap Year party given at her home last Saturday evening, to a number of the young people. A unique feature of the program was that the girls were not to invite their "steadys"—and this, we understand, was quite difficult for some—but were finally successful after a third attempt. A very pleasant time was had by a'l.