

Stranded in Big Hotel.

Minneapolis. Feb. 8—Albert and Willie Lind, 11 and 8 years old, leading their brown, short-haired dog were taken to the quarters of the police matron today from the Nicolet hotel where the three companions were discovered in the lobby, apparently alone in the large city. They say their home is on a farm near Hannaford, N. D., and that shortly before Christmas they left and have been visiting their older brothers, Robert 17 and Roger 14, at LaFayette, Minn., until a week ago when they came to Minneapolis.

"We all came down town Sunday," said Albert, "and Robert got us a place at the hotel. There was no more money yesterday. Robert took us to a big hotel and told us to stay there until he came back."

"They want to go back to their mother," said Secretary Bradley, "and we shall try and arrange it."
