

Walter H. Long, whom everyone thought was missing, returned Saturday evening from Pingree with all the cylinders in his powerful Overland running smoothly. The roads were in splendid condition most of the way, especially between here and Courtenay.

I. W. Bessler autoped to Anota to