

Herman Lucht has been busy fixing up his granary this week, to be used temporarily for a dwelling, in place of the one destroyed by fire. He received a load of furniture from his late mother's home in McHenry.