

Wm. Lucht and wife went to Buffalo last Saturday for an over Sunday visit with relatives near that place. They were met at train by relatives with team and buggy, and on the way home one of the lines broke, causing the team to run away. The occupants of the buggy jumped and all escaped injury except Mrs. Lucht, who was quite badly injured in one arm and leg.