

lost and were on the road four hours.

Dr. J. R. Truscott went to Fargo last Friday with Fred Markwardt, who will receive surgical treatment for a broken foot, which he sustained last spring in plowing. After the accident occurred, his duties on the farm kept him so busy that the injury did not heal as it should, and in order to avoid any serious results, he was advised to go to the hospital, where a good rest with the treatment will soon heal the injury.