

pleasant call.

C. W. Maude, who has been employed on a farm north of Mose for the past four months, was a visitor here Monday and Tuesday. He left on Tuesday afternoon's train for Ryegate, Montana, where he will look over the land, and if he finds something suitable, will probably locate there.